

Community Support Makes Music

Lindsay Concert Foundation would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge those individuals, foundations, and corporations who have done so much to support fine music and outreach music programs in the City of Kawartha Lakes. If you have not already done so, please consider joining our friends who help make this possible. All Donors are recognized by name and category in each Concert Program.

Business/Corporation Sponsorships

Business/Corporate Donors

Arts patronage is widely recognized as a way for businesses to support culture in their communities and to give back to the citizens who sustain their place in today's marketplace.

Private Donations

Your help will ensure that the Lindsay Concert Foundation continues to provide the highest level of fine music for the City of Kawartha Lakes community. No contribution is too small and there are a variety of ways to give, at a number of levels.

Funds for the Future

- Bursary Trust Fund
- Lindsay Concert Foundation Endowment Fund
- Rosa Matthews Riley Instrument Fund

Memorial/Planned Giving

Memorial or Planned Gifts are a living legacy that will endure in perpetuity supporting and inspiring the vision and values of the Lindsay Concert Foundation for generations to come. Your 'Legacy' can be planned through a personnel discussion to meet your individual needs and explore this special service. Contact LCF at 705-878-5625 to arrange an appointment.

In-Kind Donations

Lindsay Concert Foundation receives core support from In-Kind gifts from community businesses and individuals.

Dedication to Youth and Music

Bursary Trust Fund Scholarship Awards

The Lindsay Concert Foundation established the Bursary Trust Fund during the 10th Concert Season. Each year, beneficiaries from the City of Kawartha Lakes who show musical talent, dedication, perseverance, and an intention to further their musical education, are selected by a panel of adjudicators to receive Scholarship Awards.

Applications for these awards are due March 1st each year. Auditions are held the first Saturday in May each year. Award winners are invited to perform at the Showcase Gala concert during the following season.

Intermediate Scholarship Award

sponsored by the Lloyd Carr-Harris Foundation

Ian Morrison – Viola (2005-2006)

Junior Scholarship Award

sponsored by the Leslie Anne Porter Memorial Donation

Sarah Stone – Voice (2005-2006)

Adjudicators Development Award

Emily Karpazis – Recorder (2005-2006)

Kiwanis Music Festival

To mark its 25th Anniversary, the Lindsay Concert Foundation 25th Anniversary Award was established for the most outstanding City of Kawartha Lakes performer in any of the five musical disciplines, at the Peterborough Kiwanis Music Festival. The award is at the discretion of the adjudicators.

Secondary School Music Scholarships

LCF provides senior and junior music scholarship awards to students demonstrating outstanding proficiency in music.

Volunteers

Lindsay Concert Foundation, a not-for-profit organization, was founded by a group of committed Volunteers in 1977. Over the decades, LCF has exemplified Volunteerism at work in cooperation with the arts. From the performers to the stage, the members of the Board of Directors, to the fundraisers to ushers, Volunteers have guided and support LCF in the Kawartha Lakes community.

LCF has an ongoing need for Volunteers to perform anywhere from small, one-time tasks to ongoing committee positions. Share your knowledge, your skills, and the love of your Community or learn something new!

Donors and Sponsors

Thank you to all our donors for your outstanding dedication and support. Your generosity is sincerely appreciated by all of us at Lindsay Concert Foundation.

Winners of the 2006 CBC Galaxie Rising Stars Award, 'Made In Canada' is leading the next generation, in its exploration of the piano quartet literature.

SINFONIA TORONTO

Thursday, November 15, 2007, 7:30 pm

Glenn Crombie Theatre, Fleming College, Lindsay

Nurhan Arman, Music Director
Anya Alexeyev, Piano

"...A new arrangement for string orchestra by Sinfonia's conductor Nurhan Arman, with Robert Silverman as soloist ...one seldom missed full orchestral colours in Arman's arrangement."
- The Toronto Star

"The audience gave the Sinfonia Toronto a standing ovation after its final selection, Dvorak's Serenade."
- Barrie Examiner

Proudly sponsored by
Polito Ford Lincoln Sales Ltd.

ANTON KUERTI, Piano

Saturday, December 8, 2007, 7:30 pm

Glenn Crombie Theatre, Fleming College, Lindsay

A critic for the U.S. magazine Fanfare wrote simply that 'Kuerti is the best pianist currently playing'. CD Review (London) called him 'one of the truly great pianists of this century... stunningly played... poignantly beautiful ... a superb Schubert player', while Classic CD (London)

wrote that his was 'some of the finest Schubert playing I've ever heard.'

VANCOUVER CHAMBER CHOIR

Jon Washburn, Conductor

Saturday, March 1, 2008, 7:30 pm

Glenn Crombie Theatre, Fleming College, Lindsay

"... When it comes to unearthly beauty and awe-inspiring power, they're a pretty fine mortal approximation of how celestial singers should sound."
- North Shore News

"Jon Washburn's Choir remains at the forefront of Canadian vocal ensembles."
- The Toronto Star

Proudly sponsored by
Coldwell Banker
RMR Real Estate

SHAUNA ROLSTON, cello & HEATHER SCHMIDT, piano

Saturday, April 12, 2008, 7:30 pm

Glenn Crombie Theatre, Fleming College, Lindsay

It's not every day that you get to witness a classical music collaboration of this magnitude. With great chemistry, both musically and personally, Rolston and Schmidt are a charismatic and keenly talented Duo from Alberta.

"She [Rolston] showed off her blazing technique during the many virtuosic solo passages."
- The Toronto Star

"[Schmidt is] ... a double-threat musician ... a composer, but also a brilliant virtuoso pianist."
- The Calgary Herald
